DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 6/17/09 has been entered.

Claims 1-30, 43, 44, are withdrawn.

Claims 31-40, 46, 49, 54, 57-59. are cancelled.

Claims 41, 42, 45, 47, 48, 50-53, 55, 56 are pending.

Response to the arguments :-

The objections to the claims have been withdrawn, as applicants have amended the claim.

The rejection under 35 USC 112 of claims 41, 42, 45, 47, 48, 50-53, 55, 56, still stands changed to 112 new matter.

Applicants have amended the claims to limit the inflammation due to GRO- α and IL-8, however the specification has no description of what these inflammations are. As given earlier the definition of inflammation is very broad and inclusive of many many conditions. Applicants have also amended it to inflammation mediated at least in part by IL-8 or GRO- α .

This raises new issues and new matter issues as the specification does not clearly describe which are the inflammation mediated by IL-8 or GRO- α .

New Rejections

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the “right to exclude” granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 41,42, 45, 47, 48, 50-53, 55, 56 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 48 and 49 of U.S. Patent No. 6777432. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because these claims are also drawn to the method of treating inflammatory disorders alleviated by inhibition of GRO.

Claims 41,42, 45, 47, 48, 50-53, 55, 56 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1 and 2 of U.S. Patent No. 7151112. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims are drawn to the method of inhibiting IL-8 and GRO and mediate the disorders associated by it.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 41,42, 45, 47, 48, 50-53, 55, 56 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by KlebanovB.N.et.al.

AB Thirteen pyridine carboxylic acid derivs. (II) were prepd. and tested for antiinflammatory, antipyretic, and analgesic effects in rats and mice. All compds. tested inhibited kaolin- or formalin-induced swelling, and no relation existed between the position of the carboxyl group in the Ph residue and antiinflammatory effectiveness. Substitution of NH at X with O decreased antiinflammatory activity. Isonicotinic acid derivs. contg. a carbomethoxy group had the greatest antipyretic and analgesic activities. LD50 values were given for all compds.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 41,42, 45, 47, 48, 50-53, 55, 56 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The claims have been amended to now include mediated atleast in part by IL-8 or GRO- α .

There is no description of what is included by this term.
